

for colds - Doug is down with one at the moment, missing his U. lectures but not his wages because he was laid off his part-time sales clerk job the other day.

Betty and Murray are very happily married, as shown in a cheery joint letter they wrote recently.

We are swinging into a busy fall program of church and community activities, were at a P.T.A. meeting last night.
Love, and luck! Catherine

Dear Wiley,

These announcements are supposed to go in a double envelope, so that there will be no mailing marks on the inner one.
However, I didn't think you'd value an extra envelope enough to warrant my spending an extra 25¢ to send it. (Same old economize that's one!) Thanks for the newsy air letter. I've sent it on to Delhi. It brought home to me what a traveller you are & all well here except
