Dear Wesley.

Your letter of Jan 24th received. Of course it was too late for Catherine because she died on Jan 21st.

It has been hard for us to part with her but we are confident that she is at peace now which is beyond our comprehension.

We had a memorial service here with Alice present and another in Tillsonburg with Evelyn & Eric and your parents present.

I shall not write you much because I am sure your mother and father will write and tell you everything.

We have been comforted by a host of Christian friends who all learned to love Catherine since we came to Minneapolis; one woman said "she was the sweetest

A woman I ever knew,

These two verses were written by Catherine and quoted at both services -

From - The Hills along the River,

These are the mighty Hills, the hills I love;
Timeless are they despite their changing face, Unmoved by years and seasons flitting by,
Their changelessness the deep enduring peace
That lies at Nature's Heart - and so on mine.

From - Speak to My Heart I Pray

God of the Wind-swept space
Speak to my heart to-day
A new year dawns beclouded,
And my home is far away,

But Thou canst see where the shadows
Can never fall or mar,
and the God of things as they will be,
As God of things as they are.

I wish you every success in your new work and the satisfaction in life which you seek.

yours sincerely
Wilford
